PM Modi's visit to Mysuru, Bandipur, Mudumalai

SPG in city for security check

Mysuru, Apr. 5 (SPN, RK & BS)- Ahead of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's two-day visit to Mysuru on Apr. 8 and 9, Special Protection Group (SPG) personnel of the elite commando group, tasked with the security of country's premier, are drawing foolproof plans as per Blue Book of Ministry of Home Affairs.

A team of SPG personnel inspected Mysuru Airport at Mandakalli on Mysuru-Nanjangud Road, Oval Grounds (opposite Crawford Hall, the administrative building of University of Mysore), Convocation Hall of Karnataka State Open University (KSOU) on Hunsur Road, Hotel Radisson Blu Plaza on M.G. Road and the routes where the Prime Minister's convoy will move in the city. The SPG personnel were accompanied by DCP (Law and Order) M. Muthuraj, DCP (Crime and Traffic) S. Jahnavi, ACPs of all sub-divisions and DCF Mysuru Circle Dr. K.N. Basavaraju.

The SPG authorities have sought a report on the arrangements made for the Prime Minister's minute to minute programme in city and the Police are expected to prepare the report, complying with the instructions issued from time to time from SPG, after discussing with City Police Commissioner B. Ramesh, it is said.

Special Protection Group (SPG) personnel discussing with the officials about the arrangements at KSOU Convocation Hall in city this morning, for Prime Minister Modi's visit on Apr. 9. Picture right shows Oval Grounds being readied for temporary helipad.

A temporary helipad is being built for the landing of PM's helicopter on Apr. 8 at Oval Grounds. He will travel by road to Hotel Radisson Blu Plaza for an overnight stay. At KSOU Convocation Hall, a programme has been organised on Apr. 9 in commemoration of 50 years of Project Tiger initiative.

The Hotel authorities concerned have also been given specific instructions about the norms to be followed while allotting rooms for other guests.

Besides, food counters are being set up at the ground behind KSOU Convocation Hall.

Yesterday (Apr. 4) too, SPG Officer Naveen Kumar Mehta-led team of Officers inspected Oval Grounds for half-an-hour. He also held a meeting of Officers at Convocation Hall and shared information related to the tasks entrusted to them.

With the Model Code of Conduct in force since Mar. 29 for May 10 Assembly polls, the mandatory permission is obtained from the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer, Karnataka, to organise the events, said sources.

PM Modi will also be taking part in the programmes organised by Karnataka and Tamil Nadu Forest Departments, at Bandipur National Park and Mudumalai Tiger Reserve respectively. At Mudumalai, the PM will felicitate Bomman and Bellie, caretakers of baby elephants, who featured in Oscar-winning documentary 'The Elephant Whisperers'.

Actor Sudeep to canvass for Bommai in polls

Bengaluru, Apr. 5- Celebrated Kannada film actor Kiccha Sudeep will be canvassing for Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai in the ensuing Assembly elections.

This was announced by Sudeep at a press conference held this afternoon in Bengaluru, in the presence of CM Bommai and other Cabinet Ministers. However, Sudeep made it clear that he would not be joining BJP or any other political party. He would canvass only for his 'Mama' Bommai as the latter knew him since his childhood.

Interlock tile work near 'Sadhguru Point' atop Ch. Hill stopped

Mysuru, Apr. 5 (MTY&BCT)- The Forest Department has stalled illegal works of laying interlock tiles and kerb (border) stones atop Chamundi Hill and an FIR has been filed against the violators. A private religious organisation from Coimbatore had resorted to laying interlock tiles and borders on a road near the Nandi Statue. The road leads to a rock called "Sadhguru Point" where the spiritual guru Jaggi Vasudev reportedly got 'enlightened'. The works were underway for the last three to four days and no permission was sought from the Forest Department as the Chamundi Hill comes under its jurisdiction. Last evening, a few environmentalists alerted the Department about the concretisation of the path and this morning, a team led by RFO Dhanyashree and DRFO Satish Kumar asked the contractor to stop the works immediately.

Officers told Star of Mysore that they had seen the movement of interlock tiles towards the Hill two days back and had presumed that the tiles were meant for the repair works of the Nandi Statue Road that had collapsed due to landslides after rains. M-Sand was poured on the path, the tiles were placed and the borders were fixed with bigger concrete stones.

"Our higher officers are busy preparing for Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to Bandipur and as such, we have come here to stop the works. The works are illegal and the permission from the Centre is mandatory as the road comes under the core area of the Reserve Forest," an officer said.

The Forest staff have now removed the interlock tiles and bordering stones and have restored the path to its original condition. An FIR has been filed against the work contractor and a few others who were involved in the works. A case has been booked under various provisions of the Forest Act, officers said.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Christians all over the world will commemorate the death of Jesus Christ on Good Friday (April 7). Hailed and believed to be the Son of God by His followers, God willed Him to be born — and to be killed brutally — in order to redeem mankind from their lives of sin and deceit. From the Holy Gospels we understand that Jesus lived the 33 years of His earthly life in full awareness of God's will for Him.

Jesus is often shown in the Scriptures to be praying to His heavenly Father, meditating upon God's will in His life. His life's mission was to do the will of God, His father. This resolution helped Him to live in complete submission to God's will even if He found Himself often criticised and rejected for His insights and teachings. It was this dogged desire to do God's will that would eventually give Jesus the courage to endure His brutal death.

We read in the Gospel according to St. Mathew, chapter 26, verse 39 that shortly before His arrest, trials, beatings and crucifixion, Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane: "Father, if it's possible, let this cup of suffering be taken away from me. But let thy will be done rather than mine."

This prayer, spoken in anguish even whilst His sweat fell as droplets of blood can be considered as the highest expression of submission to God's will and plan. His trust in God's will finally gave Him the fortitude and courage to not only bear the brutality of His crucifixion but to even forgive His perpetrators. In the final hour as He hung on the Cross dying, He gave up His spirit in total submission to God's will saying, "Father into thy hands I commit my spirit."

The most touching and poignant scene of that Good Friday more than 2,000 years ago in Mount Calvary situated on the outskirts of ancient Jerusalem is the image of the Son of God hanging on a Cross in complete surrender to God's will. By submitting thus to God's will, Jesus fulfilled God's plan of bringing salvation to mankind. This Good Friday, may we align our prayer to that of Jesus': "Not mine, but thy will, Oh Lord."

Restaurant bans smartphones while dining

Tokyo: The owner of a ramen noodle eatery in Japan said he is banning customers from using their phones in order to speed up seating times and preserve the integrity of the dish.

Kota Kai, owner and operator of Tokyo eatery Debu-chan, said he noticed the customers who waited the longest to dig into the bowls of ramen noodles placed in front of them tended to be watching YouTube videos on their phones.

The restaurant owner first pitched the idea of a smartphone ban on Twitter, and positive responses led to his enacting the policy.

Kai said he is not posting any signs about the phone ban, but he has started speaking to customers individually about keeping their phones put away during mealtime.

The youngest boy to publish a book

Abu Dhabi: A United Arab Emirates boy became the world's youngest person to publish a book at the age of only 4 years and 218 days.

Guinness World Records (GWR) said Saeed Rashed AlMheiri was 4 years and 218 days old when he published his book 'The Elephant Saeed and the Bear.' The record was verified when the book sold 1,000 copies, GWR said.

AlMheiri, whose book is about kindness and friendship, said he was inspired by his sister, AlDhabi, who holds the Guinness World Records title for youngest person to publish a bilingual book (female) and youngest person to publish a bilingual book series (female).

"I love my sister so much and I enjoy playing with her all the time," the younger brother told GWR. "We read, write, draw and do so many activities together. I wrote my book [inspired by her] as I felt that I could have my own book too."

Garbage menace near Bogadi Colony raises stink

Sir,

This is another reminder for the authorities concerned to clear the rampant garbage diposed all through the service road of the Outer Ring Road from Bogadi Bank Colony to the next traffic junction leading to Rajarajeshwarinagar.

Street dogs and cattle drag plastic garbage all over the service road making it difficult for the people to walk. Ironically, this garbage menace is continuing despite a board at the entrance of the Bank Colony prohibiting such nuisance!

Unless a serious action is taken by the authorities, the people who dispose waste will never learn the lesson. We feel really sad to see this irresponsible behaviour of the citizens.

Once again I request the authorities to do a complete survey of this area and do the needful to stop this menace.

Confusion in voter list?

Call your Booth Level Officers

Names, contact numbers of BLOs painted at every polling booth

Details related to Booth Level Officers (BLOs) along with their cell phone number being painted on the compound wall of Akkana Balaga School on Thyagaraja Road in city.

By M. T. Yogesh Kumar

Mysuru, Apr. 5- The Election Commission of India (ECI) has taken several innovative steps to ensure 100 percent transparency in voting during the Legislative Assembly elections scheduled on May 10.

For the first time, the name and mobile phone numbers of the Booth Level Officer (BLO) is being made public by writing the said information and other details on the walls of respective Polling Booths across the city and district. It is to ensure that there would be no confusion on the day of voting and the polling process is conducted in a fool-proof manner.

The Karnataka elections have garnered nation-wide attention and the ECI has been making consistent arrangements to conduct the elections without giving room for any complaints. To achieve cent percent voting by encouraging voters, several awareness measures are being taken, besides enrolling the voters, revising electoral roll and other measures.

Following the instructions of the Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra, who is also the District Electoral Officer, the works on writing the name and mobile phone numbers of respective BLOs on the walls of all polling booths is underway at all the Polling Stations. In the previous elections, there were many confusions with the names of voters missing from the voter list.

Due to change in polling booths, several voters returned without voting while several others, unable to get the required details related to the booths where they can cast their vote, were not even stepping out of their house. This had resulted in less voting percentage, especially in urban areas.

Avoiding confusion

To avoid all such anomalies, measures have been taken to inform the voters even a month before the State goes to elections. Though the display of the names of polling officers and their phone numbers cannot be termed as one-stop solution for all the grievances, it can at least prevent voters from refraining from polling due to minor confusions, said sources.

The aforementioned details, along with the name of the respective Assembly Constituency, Part Number, Booth Number, are being written at all the polling stations in both urban and rural limits. The voters can contact respective BLOs and get confirmation about their names in the voter list.

They can also seek guidance from the officer over inclusion of name in the voter list within stipulated period or making corrections if any in the Voter ID. Likewise, the very step will be fruitful in redressing grievances related to voting.

Prema Bodhi, a resident of Kuvempunagar, said: "It is a welcome step to provide the name and cell phone number of respective polling officers. Urban voters were facing severe problems on the voting day as during the previous elections, the names of voters who had exercised their franchise in earlier elections were missing from the voter list. It was also difficult to find the name in the voter list and also details related to polling stations. Due all these confusions, some aged voters were averse to vote. Now, we have got an opportunity to contact the polling officer and confirm the available details."

Know Your Constituency

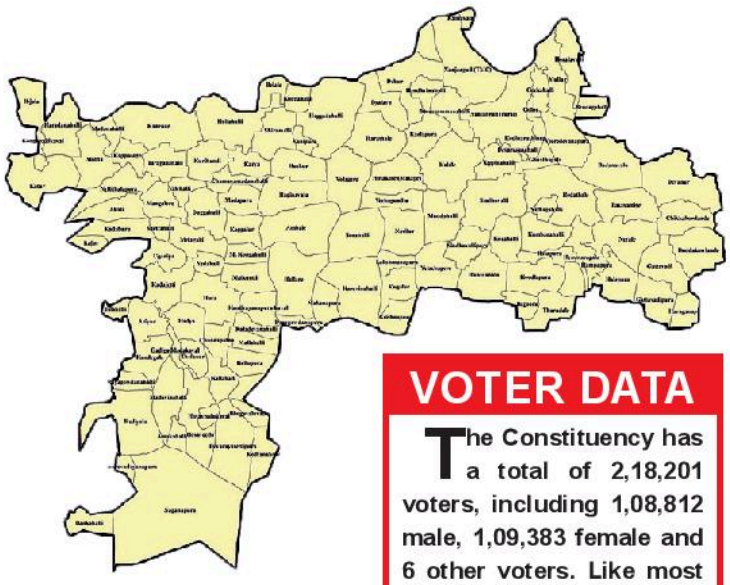
Srikanteshwara's blessings must to rule Nanjangud

By Mohan Kayaka

Mysuru, Apr. 5- All political parties have begun vying to have the blessings of Lord Srikanteshwaraswamy, the presiding deity of the Temple Town of Nanjangud. As without his support, it is impossible to be an MLA of this holy place that is a key Assembly segment of the Mysuru district.

Nanjangud town, the seat of Lord Srikanteshwara, is popularly known as Dakshina Kashi and is visited by lakhs of devotees every year from different parts of the country. The town is also an industrial hub, with many industries of repute located here.

The Constituency which was first formed as a twin-member seat in 1952, has now been converted as SC Reserved Constituency since 2008 Assembly polls. In the first election held in 1952, Hejjige Linganna (Independent) and M. Madaiah of Congress got elected from the twin-member seat, which became a single-member seat in the subsequent election held in 1957.



In 2008, the Constituency became a reserved seat for Scheduled Caste with V. Sreenivasa Prasad of the Congress winning the seat. Prasad won again in 2013 and a couple of years later he quit the Congress and joined the BJP, which necessitated the by-poll in 2017 which he however lost to Kalale N. Keshavamurthy of the Congress.

In the 2018 Assembly polls, B. Harshavardhan, son-in-law of Sreenivasa Prasad, won the seat for the BJP, thus avenging the defeat of his father-in-law Prasad. Harshavardhan defeated Kalale Keshavamurthy by a margin of nearly 13,000 votes and now he hopes to retain the seat for the BJP.

VOTER DATA

The Constituency has a total of 2,18,201 voters, including 1,08,812 male, 1,09,383 female and 6 other voters. Like most of the other Constituencies in the district, women voters outnumber men. There are 3,107 physically challenged voters and 7,572 voters above 80 years of age.

In the past, M. Mahadev (popularly known as 'Benki' Mahadev) had won thrice on a Congress ticket, while D.T. Jayakumar too had won thrice on a Janata Parivar ticket and the tussle between the two, threw up an interesting saga for over two decades.

This time, the battle will be mainly between the BJP and Congress. The Congress has already announced the candidature of Darshan Dhruvanarayan, son of late KPCC Working President and former MP R. Dhruvanarayan who passed away recently.

The Congress announced the candidature of Darshan due to the sentiment in his favour following the death of his father who was popular among the masses and was widely tipped to be the Congress candidate. Darshan is likely to ride heavily on the sympathy wave that has been generated widely across the segment.

Thousands throng Temple Town for Teppotsava

Nanjangud, Apr. 5 (SSM)- Nanjangud, popularly known as the Dakshina Kashi (Southern Kashi), was teeming with thousands of devotees who witnessed Lord Srikanteshwaraswamy Dodda Jathra 'Teppotsava' (floating festival) at the River Kapila in Nanjangud last evening organised by the Hindu Religious Institutions and Charitable Endowments Department, Government of Karnataka.

As part of the Teppotsava, several puja rituals began early in the morning at the Srikanteshwaraswamy Temple where devotees were allowed to have darshana of the presiding deity after Mahamanagalarathi.

Thousands of devotees, who had arrived from across the State following the Churnotsava Purvaka Avabruta Teertha Snana, took Teertha Snana at River Kapila early in the morning and offered sevas like Urulu Seva, Dhoopa Deepa Seva, offering silver articles to hundis, thus fulfilling their vow.

After the performance of all customary pujas and rituals to the deities (Lord Srikanteshwaraswamy and Goddess Parvati) in the temple, a team of priests led by Temple Chief Priest Nagachandra Dikshit brought the Utsava Murthi of the deities on a specially decorated 'Pallakki' (palanquin), to the banks of River Kapila. Later the Utsava Murthi of Lord Srikanteshwara and Goddess Parvati were installed in a coracle and set afloat in River Kapila (three rounds), amidst thunderous applause by the huge crowd of devotees.

During the Teppostava, devotees celebrated by setting off firecrackers on banks of River Kapila near Hejjige village and enjoyed the lights in the night sky.

Police personnel were deployed at the venue for the smooth conduct of the mega event witnessed by over 60,000 devotees. Temple Assistant Executive Officer (AEO) Venkatesh Prasad, Jagadish and others were present on the occasion.

Polls: In a first, Cash Seizure Redressal Committee formed

Banks told to watch transactions

Mysuru, Apr. 5 (RK&BS)- To ensure general public carrying cash, who will be under scrutiny during election, are not troubled, a Cash Seizure Redressal Committee has been set up to look into unaccounted cash seizures at checkposts and take a call to return the cash, maximum within a week's time. The Committee, a first of its kind, including Senior Officers, will look into the veracity of claims and return the seized cash, on production of documents. Earlier, in such cases, soon after the cash was seized, they were directly booked for violation of Model Code of Conduct and the cash was sent to the Treasury.

Deputy Commissioner K.V. Rajendra said 'Zilla Panchayat (ZP) Chief Executive Officer (CEO) is heading the Cash Seizure Redressal Committee and ever since Model Code of Conduct came into force on Mar. 29, measures are taken to keep extra vigil on cash transportation.'

K.M. Gayathri, Mysuru ZP CEO and Nodal Officer for the implementation of Model Code of Conduct, has come out with specific instructions for the bank officers, for the strict implementation of the election related norms.

Gayathri conducted a meeting of Lead Bank Officers at ZP auditorium here yesterday and instructed them to keep a close and constant watch on the accounts of customers and their cash transactions, mainly withdrawal and deposit of cash, Real Time Gross Settlement (RTGS) and online payments and immediately inform the authorities concerned, in case of any suspicious transactions. For the withdrawal and deposit of huge amount, substantiating documents should be obtained from the customers. The prior permission of Election Commission should be taken before sanctioning subsidised loan, as we should be cautious with Model Code of Conduct in force, added Gayathri.

Squads seize Rs. 11.79 lakh being transported in KSRTC bus

Cash Seizure Redressal Committee to look into amounts confiscated at check-posts

Mysuru, Apr. 5 (RK&BCT)- The Static Surveillance Teams and Flying Squads that are monitoring strict implementation of election Model Code of Conduct have seized Rs. 11,79,500 unaccounted cash from Rammanahalli check-post last evening.

The cash was being transported in a KSRTC bus heading to Mysuru from Bannur and the incident came to light during routine checking. Not only private vehicles are being checked but the flying squads are also screening KSRTC buses as it is widely suspected that these Government buses might be used as cash carriers to avoid checking.

The money has now been handed over to the Income Tax Department for further investigation as any seizure above Rs. 10 lakh will be probed by the Income Tax Department.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Assistant Commissioner and Election Officer Kamala Bai said that as of now an 'NC case' has been booked and the whereabouts of the person carrying the cash in the KSRTC bus is being probed.

"The District Cash Seizure Redressal Committee will look into the case and a suitable decision will be taken. Till now in all the elections whenever cash is seized, the money would be deposited in the treasury and the owner of the cash would get back the money after producing documents only after the election process was over. But now, the Cash Seizure Redressal Committee will look into the genuineness and credible evidence of the cash transportation and if the Committee is satisfied with the records, it will release the cash back to the owner within a week," Kamala Bai said.

Other seizures made: According to the daily seizure report released by the Mysuru Deputy Commissioner's Office this morning, Rs. 29,79,500 has been handed over to the Income Tax Department till now. The Static Surveillance Teams have seized Rs. 71,81,855 and the Flying Squads have seized Rs. 11,36,630.

Over 137 grams of gold, food kits worth Rs. 19,69,647 and kitchen utensils worth Rs. 26,320 have been recovered. In all, 59,868.21 litres of liquor worth Rs. 1,52,57,800 has been confiscated. Drugs worth Rs. 25,000 have been seized.

State-wide, the Election Commission has made seizures totalling Rs. 60.99 crore, including cash, liquor, drugs, and metals. The squads seized cash and articles worth nearly Rs. 58 crore even before the elections were announced.

After the Model Code of Conduct came into force, the amount of cash seized was Rs. 17.36 crore, while liquor worth Rs. 22.35 crore, narcotics worth Rs. 42.66 lakh, precious metals worth Rs. 9.15 crore, and other items (freebies) worth Rs. 11.69 crore were seized, said a press release from the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer, Karnataka.

In the last 48 hours, Flying Squads and Police authorities seized 8.569 kg of gold worth Rs. 1.47 crore in C.V. Raman Nagar Constituency, Bengaluru. Likewise, the Income Tax Department has seized cash totalling Rs. 3.36 crore in Padmanabhanagar Constituency, Bengaluru, stated the press release.

'Our glorious history buried and false narratives foisted on us'

Orator Chakravarthy Sulibele after felicitating artistes, designers of play 'Tipu Nija Kanasugalu'

Sachin Mithra, who played the role of Tipu Sultan in the play 'Tipu Nija Kanasugalu,' seen addressing the gathering at Madhava Krupa in Mysuru last evening as Founder of Yuva Brigade and noted orator Chakravarthy Sulibele, Rangayana Director Addanda C. Cariappa and others look on.

Mysuru, Apr. 5 (MK&BCT)- The play on Tipu Sultan titled 'Tipu Nija Kanasugalu' (The Real Dreams of Tipu) produced by theatre repertory Rangayana is a resounding success — with 56 performances — and has drawn thousands of spectators to theatre. The playwright Addanda C. Cariappa, who has written the play and is also the Director of Rangayana, has claimed that the play attempted to unmask the 18th century ruler.

An event held at Madhava Krupa in Mysuru last evening celebrated the success of the play and the people who are behind the production including actors, music directors, costume designers, light and sound providers were felicitated. The event was jointly organised by Yuva Brigade and Mysuru Kala Pratishtana.

Founder of Yuva Brigade and noted orator Chakravarthy Sulibele and social worker Vadiraj felicitated the artistes, technicians and all the others who were involved in the play that was staged at many important places in Karnataka.

In his address, Chakravarthy Sulibele said that the play, which exposes historical lies that have been peddled since decades, has been welcomed with open arms by the people. It attracted the audience to the theatre at a time when not many people go to see plays. "This massive crowd at plays reflects the public sentiments," he said.

"After India became independent from colonial rule, we fell prey to pseudo-secularism that glorified Tipu Sultan as a freedom fighter and a lover of Kannada language. We were taught in our schools about the so-called heroic acts of Tipu and now when we see his real face and cruelty, we are shocked how history has been twisted to suit the machinations of the ruling dispensations. This is how India was governed where historical facts were buried, invaders were glorified and our ancient culture, ethos, tradition and scientific knowledge were condemned as of no worth," Chakravarthy Sulibele regretted.

Truth revealed now

"Only now when the truth has been revealed, their evil designs are exposed. Unfortunately, fake historical proof was created and Indians were pitted against Indians for political gains. And those who helped brainwash our people were self-centred academics, historians and their political masters. Our glorious history was wiped off from our memories and false history was foisted on us. But the people and communities who have suffered the atrocities by rulers like Tipu Sultan kept their sufferings alive through generations and they remember the horrors till date," he added.

In his address, Rangayana Director Addanda Cariappa said that the play is about the hitherto hidden true face of Tipu Sultan that many don't want to hear about. "There is only one particular section of the society to whom the freedom of speech and expression applies. When I try to introduce the darker side and the cruel side of Tipu Sultan, my voice is suppressed. I have come out with this literary work after thorough research and based on many books," he added.

"We have taken this play to every part of Karnataka. People turned up in large numbers and many shows were declared house-full, a previously unheard-of phenomenon for a historical drama. I am confident about the facts of my story, and some people are trying to hide the cruel face of Tipu under an innocent mask on his true face. And I also have evidence that it is two Vokkaligas, Uri Gowda and Nanje Gowda who killed Tipu and not the British," Cariappa said.

Mysuru Kala Pratishtana President Hanumanthachar Joshi, Secretary Madhurya Ramaswamy, Chethan and others were present.

Slapping incident recalled

Sharing his experiences, the star attraction of the play Sachin Mithra of Bidar, who played the role of Tipu Sultan said, "When we finished the show in Hassan, a woman approached me and said that she wanted to take a photo with me. The woman slapped me all of a sudden and when I asked her why she slapped me, she apologised and said that she had actually slapped Tipu Sultan and not me."

"Many people, irrespective of their ideologies have watched the play and have given us a standing ovation wherever we have performed. I was surprised to see the interest of the spectators," Sachin Mithra added.

WORD OF THE DAY

Infantilise

Pronunciation: in-FAN-tuh-lyze.
Meaning: To infantilise someone is to treat them as though they are an infant—in other words, to treat them as helpless, immature, or as one who lacks adult agency.
Origin: Infantilise is just a baby, linguistically speaking. It wasn't until several decades into the 20th century that social scientists started using the term to discuss the ways in which treating humans as helpless can prolong or encourage their dependency on others. The adjective infantile, which gave birth to infantilise, is far more mature: it dates to the 17th century. (Infant dates to the 14th century and comes ultimately from a Latin word meaning "incapable of speech; young.") Infantile sometimes literally means "relating to infants"—that is, to children in the first year of life—but it is also applied more broadly. If you chide someone for their infantile behaviour, for example, you rebuke the person for acting immaturely or childishly; to chide someone for infantilising behaviour, on the other hand, is to rebuke them for acting as if others are not as mature or independent as they are.
Example: "Countering negative stereotypes, in oneself and others, is a complex process. Replacing negative beliefs with positive ones may help ... but the nature of these beliefs matters. Seemingly positive stereotypes that infantilise the elderly (such as the 'sweet old lady' stereotype) can still have negative effects." — Juliana Breines

THE ODD WORD

Iconoscope

Old kind of television camera tube.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

In over your head

Meaning: The phrase 'In over your head' is used when one is too deeply involved with something or someone, or has more difficulties or problems than one can manage.
Origin: Most of us have been in over our heads at some point. It makes sense that the origin of the idiom 'In over your head' can be found in antiquity; it is believed to have been first used sometime during the 1600s. As few average Europeans could swim during this period, being in water deeper than one's head was to be in serious trouble.
Example: "Go ahead and lead the meeting today; I'll help you out if you get in over your head."

QUOTE BOX

Confidence is like a dragon where, for every head cut off, two more heads grow back. — Criss Jami
